Shopping Buddy Program

In the fourth quarter of 2018, 30 families from PPR Pantai Ria participated in the Shopping Buddy Program that ease their groceries burden, with 10 different families being chauffeured to a groceries shopping session every month. This quarter saw an increase on the support amount to RM300 per family from the previous RM100 per family, with the additional RM200 per family coming from GHCA. 53 volunteers helped out in the program by acting as the shopping buddies for October to December 2018.

FAMILIES HIGHLIGHTS

SHAKILA

Puan Shakila has a big household of 17 children with many of them still schooling. The groceries support of RM300 from the Shopping Buddy Program has helped to reduce her household burden and ensure sufficient food is put on the table for her 17 children.

KRISHNA

Mr Krishna has a disability in hearing and works as a cleaner at the PPR. He is a kind person and has a soft heart towards animals. His disability doesn't stop him from rescuing many injured animals and nurse them at his home until they are back in health. Being at a disadvantaged situation certainly does not prevent one from doing good and contributing back, as shown by the action of Mr Krishna who provides for the rescued animals.

PRUkasih Program

In the fourth quarter of 2018, 162 residents from 141 households have been successfully enrolled for the program via monthly recruitment drive and house visitation. A total of 25 claims related to illnesses, accidents, and death have been filed by the PRUkasih members, with RM21,208.00 worth of claims been approved for disbursement to the affected members.

PRUKASIH BENEFICIARIES

KAMARUL (DEATH CLAIM)

In October, Kamarul lost his father over cancer. His father was a PRUkasih member, hence as a beneficiary, he was entitled to receive death benefits, housing allowances, and food allowances that help to relief the sudden loss of income for the family. Kamarul has utilised the funding to cover for his father's funeral expenses.

JAMILAH (ILLNESS CLAIM)

Puan Jamilah worked as a babysitter for 6 children. Due to illnesses, she has cut down the number of children under her care, resulting in a major decrease in income. She received food and rental aid for 5 months to help ease her financial burden while she recuperates.

SELVER RAJU (ACCIDENT CLAIM)

Mr Selver Raju worked as construction worker and met with an accident at work which broke his leg. He has been on MC for over 3 months. Food and rental aid from PRUkasih allowed him to stay focus on getting medical treatment to recuperate.

Didik-Kasih EduCare Program

The Didik-Kasih EduCare program aids underprivileged students in pursuing their tertiary studies by providing them with study aid fund. In return, the students are groomed to organise and lead a charity project to give back to the society. In the fourth quarter of 2018, there were 9 candidates enrolled with the program, with 1 of them having completed her studies in ACCA and is currently serving as a trainee in PricewaterhouseCoopers. 2 of them also conducted their respective charity projects for the program in the fourth quarter.

TOUR TO NATIONAL SCIENCE CENTRE

Priyanka (standing, first from left) organised a tour to the National Science Centre for 28 children from The Selangor Children Welfare Home, accompanied by 10 volunteers. The children had a fun session learning about science through various experiential exhibits. Priyanka showed great leadership in guiding the volunteers to bond with the children and had a memorable time together. By the end of the event, the children gave hugs to Priyanka and thanked all the volunteers.

CARE AND SHARE WITH SHELTER HOME

Chia Yee (front row, first from right) conducted her charity project by spending half a day with 15 children from Shelter Home. Being formerly from Shelter Home herself, Chia Yee shared about life after Shelter Home and how she manages her studies, social life, and finance. The session was also enriched with some games and personality tests to help the children learn while having fun. The children had a good bond together with their big sister, Chia Yee throughout the session. Chia Yee shared that she felt great to be able to give back to the home she grew up at.
